SEATON Visitor Centre Trust is set to undergo a relaunch as it looks to get more people involved with the project.

On Wednesday, February 24th, a free event will take place at Seaton Town Hall between 6pm and 8pm. During the two-hour meeting, information and an update of how the proposed visitor centre in Seaton is taking shape will be available.

During the event guest speakers including Tracey Guire, project manager for the Seaton and Exmouth Visitor Centres, and James Chubb, east Devon education ranger, will talk on how the project has progressed to date.

Information displays will also be available giving more detailed information and images of the how the proposed visitor centre might look. Refreshments, including hot and cold drinks, will be on offer.

A previous funding project for the centre failed in November last year. A cash injection for the scheme was due to come in from the Sea Change Programme but they saw their budget slashed and awarded monies available to other towns.

The Seaton centre now has to rely on funding pledged by East Devon District Council and Devon County Council along with any other private sector investment that can be secured.

A spokesman for the trust said: "We are a small group of volunteers, who started as the Seaton Gateway Town Group over eight years ago, who have been focusing more recently on bringing a visitor centre to Seaton.

"Most of this time has been spent arranging events and activities for everyone to enjoy the beautiful surroundings of Seaton. We also work with architects and provide input for large funding bids.

"We know there is a lot of interest about the proposed visitor centre in Seaton and we are trying to get the community to say when will we get the visitor centre and not why. It will take time but we are willing to do our best with our resources.

"The relaunch is so that everyone can see what we are doing and that we mean to work hard at trying to get the community behind us, whatever comes our way."

Charity warns of bogus fundraisers

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

DEVON Air Ambulance Trust has warned the general public that bogus fundraisers are operating the county.

The trust has received a number of reports that the bogus fundraisers knock on people's doors asking for donations.

Helena Holt, chief executive of Devon Air Ambulance Trust, said: "Reports such as this cause us great concern.

"I would particularly like to stress that we never ask for or collect cash on the doorstep.

"If someone knocks on your door and asks you for money for the air ambulance, they are not from Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

"Our canvassers all dress in branded clothing, plus they have a photo ID card, which should be highly visible on a lanyard around their neck.

"We are always more than happy for members of the public to ask to inspect these IDs or to call the charity on 01392 466666 to check that the collector is legitimate.'

"There is only one air ambulance trust operating in Devon. We are very pleased that this matter is now being investigated by the police."

Police pay a visit to WI

BEER Women's Institute (WI) played host to a police officer from Seaton on Wednesday, February 3rd.

PC Steve Speariett was invited to give a talk to the WI about the role of police in the community. Crime prevention advice was also given along with scam advice and how to ensure you are not a victim.

PC Speariett said: "I would like to thank the WI for making me feel welcome and the cup of tea and biscuits afterwards."

Beer WI meet in the Mariners Hall, Beer, and can be contacted via their website at www.beerwi.org.uk.

Sausage and tram supper

A SAUSAGE and mash night is set to take place at Seaton Tramway on Wednesday, February 17th.

Three local sausages and three types of mash will be available along with a pint of local beer for adults and a soft drink for children.

The tram departs from Seaton at 6pm and then returns from Colyton at 8pm. Places must be booked in advance, for more information contact 01297 20375.

Table event

A TABLE top sale at Colyton Town Hall in aid of Devon Air Ambulance Trust is to be held by Colyton Short Mat Bowles Club on Saturday, March 13th from 9.30am-12noon.

Tables are £5 each and can be booked by calling Don Hansford on 01297 552846.

Dog fouling patrol meet

A MULTI-AGENCY approach was taken during a recent dog mess patrol morning held in Seaton.

The town's police force, environmental health, East Devon District Council (EDDC), Seaton Town Council and the REACT team were all out on patrol during the event that took place on Wednesday, January 27th.

Patrols were carried out in Harepath Road, Valley View, Colyford Road, the beach and esplanade, Primrose Way and the town centre.

As a result of the patrols, several dog bags were handed out and one member of the public was given advice about not allowing her dog to stray into 'no dogs allowed' areas.

Jim Knight, of EDDC, said: "I was very pleased to be invited to walk around areas of the town with other local authorities. It was evident that most people with dogs are responsible and clear it (mess) away. However, it was apparent that there are still one or two dog owners that do not clear up after their dogs.

"All in all I feel that this operation was a great success."

PC Roy Hutter, of Seaton police, added: "This is another example of partners and communities working together to target and combat the main issue that has been highlighted by the community.

"However, I feel that since this issue was raised 12 months ago we have successfully reduced the amount of dog fouling in many areas and educated dog owners. Although there is still work to be done in some areas, including Harepath Road, I am surprised that this issue still remains the main concern for residents.

"I would like to ask residents to keep informing us of your issues and concerns and we will work with our partner agencies to address them."

New Green Party event

THE newly-formed east Devon branch of the Green Party will present itself to prospective members at a public meeting in Honiton.

The branch was formed in Sidmouth last month and is now aiming to spread its wings and message.

A get-together is planned for Saturday, February 13th in the Baptist Church, Honiton High Street, from 2.30pm-4.30pm.

The new branch is led by Sharon Pavey, a mum-of-two from Membury, who has been selected as the Green Party's prospective parliamentary candidate for the new East Devon Constituency at the next general election.

The party has not yet got a candidate for the new Tiverton and Honiton Constituency, which will also include Axminster, but Sharon said: "Most of our current members live in Sidmouth but I know there must be people in my own area of Honiton and Axminster who are interested in green issues or about looking into different political options.

"The meeting on February 13th is a great opportunity for local people to get involved in issues in their area.

"Everyone can make a difference, especially when we all get together to combine our efforts."

If you would like to find out more about your local Green Party, contact Diana Neal on 01395 263728 or e-mail diananeal@mac.com

You can also find meeting dates online at www.sharonpavey.org.

◆ MOKEY, left, has finally found love in Leah — just in time for Valentine's Day

Love is in the air... donkey-style

AS Valentine's Day approaches, two donkeys are said to be living proof that animals have feelings too.

Mokey and Leah are both 27 years old and live at Brookfield Farm, one of The Donkey Sanctuary's farms near Honiton.

Mokey's companion passed away 12 years ago and he was left so heartbroken that he stopped eating.

Sanctuary staff say this behaviour is typical of a grieving donkey, and there was cause for concern.

As Mokey's depression continued his groom, Sue Letheren, made it her mission to try and find him a new friend.

She introduced him to several other single donkeys without success as Mokey showed no interest whatsoever.

Things got worse as Mokey was in danger of becoming seriously ill as he continued to refuse food.

But things suddenly changed when he was introduced to Leah.

Sue described it as love at first sight, and said: "It was incredible to watch, his ears pricked up as soon as he saw Leah and he followed her around everywhere; he was completely besotted.

"We were all relieved to see Mokey tucking into a bowl of food with his new friend, and 12 years later they still have an incredible friendship.

"It is a heart-warming story which just proves how strongly donkeys form bonds with each other."

The Donkey Sanctuary, established in 1969, is a centre of excellence on the care and welfare of donkeys and is currently caring for over 3,000 rescued donkeys in the UK alone.

According to the sanctuary:

• Donkeys develop strong emotional attachments with their companions which has implications for their management.

• Donkeys can form lifelong friendships and do not like to be kept alone.

• It is recommended that they are kept with a companion, preferably another donkey.

• Donkeys can bond very closely and may become distressed if separated, even for a short while.

• Bonded donkeys need to be kept together at all times unless directed otherwise by a vet ,as separation can cause stress and increase the possibility of serious medical consequences.

• If you need advice about donkeys, or would like more information about the work of The Donkey Sanctuary, please visit www.thedonkeysanctuary.org.uk or telephone 01395 578222.

Wet and wild in the winter

IT has been decided to introduce a winter version of a popular wildlife weekend on the Axe Wetlands.

For the last two years, East Devon District Council's Countryside Service has organised a summer weekend of wildlife — and the response has been good enough to warrant a winter version.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "To make the most of the wintering birds, the event will be based around Colyford Common Local Nature Reserve and the adjacent Black Hole Marsh. During the day there will be bird watching from the Colyford Common hide and around Black Hole Marsh.

"Experts will be on hand to describe the birds – we would expect to see a number of wigeon, redshank, teal, little egrets and maybe the flash of an irridescent kingfisher.

"Telescopes and binoculars will be available free of charge. There will also be guided walks.

"Of course, we can't guarantee a glimpse of the otters that are currently in residence, but who knows? They are continually surprising us with their boldness."

Seaton Tramway is organising discounted tram rides from Seaton to a temporarily created halt at Black Hole Marsh — and visiotors are asked to wear wellies and warm clothing, and keep in mind that there is no parking available at Colyford Common.

The daytime activities run from 1pm until 4pm on Saturday, February 13th and from 10am until 4pm on both Sunday February 14th and Monday February 15th.

Further information is available at www.eastdevon.gov.uk/countryside or from the Countryside Service on 01395 517557 or 07814 477 422.

Rosie's cash could make 'World of Difference'

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

A YOUNG Dalwood woman can fully concentrate on her placement with an international charity after winning a grant.

Rosie Warin was already involved with United Youth Development Organisation (UYDO) in London, but also had to work to support herself.

The 23-year-old was doing bar work at The Royal Standard in Lyme Regis when she applied for a Vodafone World of Difference grant.

The programme gives people the opportunity to work for charities without having to worry about making financial sacrifices.

Through the World of Difference programme, successful applicants get paid experience for two months or a year — at a charity of their choice in the UK or overseas.

Rosie, who completed a public relations degree at Bournemouth last year, started her two-month placement in early January - and she is loving every minute of it.

She said: "I'm excited about being able to spend loads more time working with UYDO and expanding on work I have already started doing.

"I was already volunteering for the charity. But I was also working, living at home.

"The grant meant I could move to London."

UYDO describes itself as "a youth-led, grass roots, not-for-profit organisation driven by hundreds of members from more than 35 different countries."

A spokesperson said: "We stand united against poverty, inequality and injustice.

"Poverty and unemployment are big problems in the developing world and an overwhelming number of young people are directly impacted every day. Without opportunities, young people are unable to improve their lives.

"UYDO was set up to provide small loans, training and support to young entrepreneurs in the developing world, therefore enabling young people to start their own businesses and take themselves out of poverty."

Rosie has always been interested in international development and spent her gap year (2005) in Africa.

Among other things, she volunteered at a South African school.

At UYDO she is involved with designing and organising a campaign to inspire 16-18-year-olds to fight poverty and injustice.

In the long-term, she hopes to work in public relations connected to international development.

In the short-term, she is keen to promote the UYDO blog she designs and manages.

On January 27th she said: "This launched last week and has already driven loads of traffic onto our website, which we are really pleased with.

"I do a video diary, outlining the week's good work."

The blog is at http://worldofdifference.vodafone.co.uk/uk/rosie-warin/.

EDDC comments on parking fee bid

LIMITED public transport to and from Sidmouth has been given as a reason for not introducing car park charges at East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Knowle headquarters.

In last week's Pulman's View, district councillor Roger Giles expressed disappointment that he failed to find a seconder for a proposal to introduce the charges.

The proposal was made during a committee meeting in January.

Councillor Giles wanted EDDC to follow the example of Devon County Council, which has introduced car park charges at County Hall, Exeter, for all users.

Such a move, he claimed, would bring in about £26,000 a year if the rate was set at 50p per day.

EDDC has since commented on councillor Giles's comments and a spokesperson said: "Councillor Giles did raise the question of charging to park at Knowle but, as he rightly says in his statement, this move did not receive any support at all from members of the Corporate Overview and Scrutiny Committee.

"Sidmouth is very different from Exeter in that it has no railway station and a very limited bus service, making it difficult for staff to travel into Knowle other than by car.

"Staff who live locally are encouraged to walk or cycle to work and the council runs a Cycle to Work scheme, which is promoted by the Inland Revenue, to help anyone who is interested to purchase a bike."

Thanks to mystery finder

AN Axminster woman is keen to personally thank another woman who found her lost purse and returned it to her.

Jennifer Vincent was in Seaton on Sunday, January 24th and somehow lost her purse.

It contained a small amount of cash, bank cards and photos of her grandchildren.

She cancelled the bank cards and thought she'd never see the purse again. So it was a nice surprise when it turned up in the post the following Saturday.

It appears that someone found the purse, took the small amount of cash and threw it away.

A second person then came across it and found Jennifer's address inside and posted the purse.

The person who posted the purse signed the letter as Lizzie, but gave no other details.

Jennifer said: "Somebody took the cash and put it [the purse] down again, I suppose.

"But Lizzie has restored my faith in human nature. I would like to thank her personally, but I don't have an address.

"It's nice to think that people bother. It's a rarity nowadays."

If you are Lizzie, or know who she is, you can contact Jennifer on 01297 35329.

Cash boost for three charities and Guides

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

THREE local charities and two girl guides were given financial boosts when Axminster and District Lions Club held a presentation ceremony at Axe Vale Social Club.

Lions district governor Christine Rowe attended the ceremony and presented Jeanette Ward with a £1,000 cheque to Axminster and Seaton Carers' Group.

Lions member Anne Hardman explained: "This is the president's chosen charity as it covers such a wide spectrum of need.

"The group's aim is to encourage and enable carers to support each other." Robin Wilson, who organises the Axe Vale Charabanc Group, received £250 for the group's invaluable work transporting the disabled and elderly to "anywhere and everywhere".

Anne said: "Robin kindly gave up time prior to Christmas to help drive the Santa float which was much appreciated - and over and above the call of duty.

Sue Wilson, the new co-ordinator for the Children's Hospice SW, received £250 for the much needed-facility which supports not only sick children but their family and siblings.

Girl guide Emma Tristram and her leader, Rachel Tettersell, have their sights set on an educational trip to Mexico later this year — provided they can raise the necessary funds.

They will travel to an international scout centre called Our Cabana to celebrate 100 years of guiding and take part in a project.

Anne commented: "They were each given £100 towards their target and the Lions look forward to hearing about their experiences.

"Both helped to collect over the Christmas period in true Girl Guide style."

US family seeks 30s band info

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

AN American family are appealing to readers of the Pulman's View for information about a former Axminster resident and musician.

Brook and Philip Newbery, of Williamsburg, Virginia, are trying to gather information about a relative of theirs called Jack Newbery.

Jack played in an Axminster band called the Gray Newbery Band throughout the 1930s.

According to Mrs Newbery, the band were big in their day and regularly attracted large crowds to their performances.

She said: "The Gray Newbery Band had its beginnings in Axminster in 1932 and they performed throughout the Westcountry until 1939. We do know that they played in what was then the Plaza Ballroom in Axminster and in Exeter.

"The band consisted of Gray Newbery (leader and saxophone), Jack Newbery (drums), Charlotte Goodfellow (vocals and piano), John Goodfellow (trumpet) and Dick Williams (also on saxophone).

"We are trying to obtain any information on the band, in the form of additional photographs, recordings, newspaper clippings or information from anyone who may have memories of the band and where they played.

"We are pretty stumped and have looked all over the internet. I know there is someone in your readership area who may have some information."

During the band's heyday, Jack was engaged to fellow band member Charlotte Goodfellow. However, the outbreak of the Second World War brought an end to their relationship and the break-up of the band was just around the corner.

Mrs Newbery said: "With the Second World War approaching and some band members enlisting in the services, the group had to disband. Jack went on to serve in the army and saw action in Belgium. Charlotte continued teaching at a school in Charmouth and her brother, John, joined the Royal Marines Band and was stationed on board HMS Ajax when it was hit by enemy fire.

"As a result of his injuries John died and was buried in Haifa, Israel.

"Unfortunatley, John's death led to the break-up of Charlotte and Jack's engagement."

In the mid-1940s Jack married a lady called Sheila Gladding and together they raised four boys. Charlotte met and married an American army sergeant, Roy Rhodes, and they eventually moved to the USA settling in Virginia where they raised three children.

Fast forward to the 1980s and Charlotte decided to take her two daughters back to her hometown of Charmouth.

Arriving at Axminster train station she was greeted by a taxi driver with a full cab. The taxi driver mentioned that there was a shortage of drivers that day, but he would send the next available taxi and handed Charlotte a business card.

◆ JACK Newbery and, inset, Charlotte Goodfellow (now Charlotte Rhodes) gets ready to perform with the Gray Newbery Band

Charlotte looked at the card and, in a bizarre twist of fate, realised that the card shows Jack Newbery and his son, Philip, as the owners of the taxi company.

A private car then called to pick up the family and the driver began loading their luggage into the boot.

Mrs Newbery said: "To Charlotte's amazement the driver was Jack, who she had not seen in 35 years. This surprise meeting not only renewed their friendship, but brought the two families together.

"For many years after, Jack and Sheila visited America and stayed with Charlotte and Roy and Charlotte's family stayed with Jack and Sheila on their visits to the UK. Eventually, Jack and Sheila's son, Philip, decided to emigrate to the USA and ended up living in Williamsburg."

Whilst living in Williamsburg, Philip met Brook and the couple have been married for more than 15 years.

Of the original Gray Newbery band members, Charlotte is the only survivor.

"Charlotte looks back with fond memories on those wonderful days with the band," said Mrs Newbery.

"She is in her 90s now and not well and we would love to find any information about the band to show her."

Anyone with information or photos is asked to contact Brook Newbery via Facebook — search for the Facebook group called Gray Newbery and His Band. In order to leave a comment on the page you must ask to be a member of the group. Alternatively, contact this newspaper and we will forward the information to America.

It's all heart at charity Valentine's folk dance

THE British Heart Foundation and Honiton Folk Dance Club have again joined forces to hold a Grand Valentine's Dance in aid of the former.

Music will be provided by Honiton Folk Dance Club's resident band, The Amycrofters on Monday February, 15th in the Turks Head Lodge function rooms — formerly Honiton Motel — starting at 8pm .

Folk dance club members Andrew and June Mycroft said: "There will be a dress theme of red and white and dancers are invited to support this. "These colours illustrate the parallel between those of the British Heart Foundation and those representing St. Valentine.

"A prize will be awarded for the best outfit."

Admission to the dance is £3.50, tea and coffee included, and there will be a bar.

For more information about this event, or about Honiton Folk Dance Club, call 01404 46451 or visit the website at www.amycrofters.co.uk

Another level for framework

A HUGE project to create a housing and employment land blueprint for east Devon has reached another level.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) has been working behind the scenes since the Government introduced a legal requirement for local authorities to produce a local development framework.

Following initial public consultation, EDDC has produced a bumper report which comes to almost 60 A4 pages, listing a set of ideas for the district up to the year 2026.

EDDC has asked for more public input and has announced a series of public workshops in affected towns during spring, where options for the respective areas will be outlined in full detail.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "Town and parish councils, as well as business groups, will have an opportunity to put their views and preferences forward.

"Residents' groups will also be invited to take part in the consultation exercise and give EDDC their ideas.

"The consultation exercise will result in a draft Core Strategy Document, produced towards the end of the summer.

"This will be debated by EDDC members in the autumn, ready for submission to the Secretary of State towards the end of 2010."

There is an element of uncertainty hanging over the project, however, as it is not clear exactly how it would be affected if a unitary council of some sort is introduced for Devon.

This is a separate process which has dragged on and has been the subject of legal challenges.

In December, the Boundary Committee advised the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, John Denham, that Devon should have just one council.

The latest consultation exercise on the unitary issue closed on January 19th.

EDDC is strongly against the idea of a unitary council and has the support of East Devon MP Hugo Swire, who recently said: "A unitary authority in Devon is simply not wanted nor needed and in the current economic climate and public spending squeeze the time has come to put an end to this farce."

But work on the local development framework process will carry on until a decision is made.

Further information about workshops and other consultation initiatives will be issued in due course.

The report can be accessed online at www.eastdevon.gov.uk/oscc_ldf_report_020210.pdf.

600-lots for first auction

SOME 600 lots will go under the hammer when Bearnes Hampton and Littlewood stages the inaugural auction in its new Dowell Street, Honiton, premises.

The auction is scheduled for Tuesday, February 16th and features ceramics, glass, pictures, silver, jewellery, furniture and works of art.

The new premises were acquired at the beginning of this year, and the company has a full schedule of auctions planned for 2010 — holding fortnightly antiques and collectables sales in addition to specialist sales of antiquarian books, sporting and collectors sales.

A company spokesperson said: "There will also be various valuation days held at the auction rooms in Dowell Street, where members of the public will be able to meet with our specialists, discuss items they may be thinking of selling and find out what their items might be worth at auction.

"If there are large items, such as furniture which are not portable, one of our valuers would be happy to arrange to visit you at your home."

Among some of the interesting items on offer on the 16th is a CH Brannam (Barnstaple) pottery vase incised CH Brannam, Barum, 1889 with monogram for William Baron, carrying a pre-sale estimate of £180-220. Also from north Devon, there is an Alexander Lauder (Barnstaple) pottery vase with Osprey in a landscape on a blue ground, which is expected to fetch between £80-120, whilst a late Victorian English chiming bracket clock with an applied presentation plaque to the base dated for 1891is inviting bids between £600-800

Further information about the forthcoming sale or Bearnes Hampton and Littlewood's services is available on 01404 510000 or online at www.bhandl.co.uk.

Fitness 'fanatic' new LED chief

A FITNESS 'fanatic' has been appointed as the new chief executive of Leisure East Devon (LED).

Peter Gilpin, 51, is the current British Masters 100m backstroke champion for his age group and he also boasts a background as a former PE teacher and swimming coach at Olympic level. Mr Gilpin will take over when current leader David Pagett retires in March.

LED is the charitable trust that operates leisure facilities on behalf of East Devon District Council, and its incoming chief executive is currently responsible for the management of all Mendip District Council's leisure centres and pools as well as a private fitness club.

Current LED boss David Pagett said: "We're delighted to welcome Peter onboard and I'm pleased to be retiring knowing that the future of LED is in safe hands.

"He offers a wealth of knowledge and expertise in building mutually beneficial partnerships across the whole sector of leisure management and sport, and we're confident he will bring this experience to LED with great success going forward."

Originating from Exeter, where he still has close family ties, Peter began his career in leisure management as the supervisor of Topsham Outdoor Pool when it first opened in 1979.

Mr Gilpin commented: "David and his team have done a tremendous job in getting LED off to great start in the organisation's first four years.

◆ PETER Gilpin

"I am taking over at a time when LED and East Devon District Council, like all local authorities and their service providers, are facing considerable challenges in the face of unprecedented economic constraints.

"I am very much looking forward to the challenge and working with the team at LED, the council and customers."

Bus on agenda at forum meet

AXMINSTER Senior's Forum held its meeting on Monday, January 25th. The speaker was councillor Andrew Moulding who gave a very interesting talk on Axminster Community Enterprise (ACE). He spoke first about himself and his life before becoming a councillor.

He told members about the vision for Axminster that ACE has. Redevelopment for Axminster including Webster's garage, securing a north-south relief road, more open space and a growth in housing which means a larger population.

A member queried this as population growth will bring more strain on schools, the medical centre and hospital. It was hoped that this had been considered.

Councillor Moulding said they were looking into funding for a town bus with the possibility of going out into the villages to make the service more viable.

Axminster Senior's Forum has had a bus on the agenda but has not been able to secure funding. It was hoped that ACE would be able to do this without changing the original town routes which have been surveyed. Members found the talk enlightening and informative.

The meeting ended early as several of the members were going to the Axe Valley Community College for computer lessons which were being given by the students to the Axminster Senior's Forum as part of inter-generational relationship between the older and younger members of the community.

The next meeting of the senior's forum will take place on Monday, March 8th at the Church Room off Church Street at 2.30pm. It is hoped there will be a speaker from British Rail.

On Tuesday, January 26th members attended the meeting of the Axminster Devon Association of Parish Councils at the Guildhall.

The Senior's Forum had been invited to talk to the councillors about the Senior Council for Devon and the hopes, aims and aspirations it wished to achieve for the over 50s.

David Snelling and Paul Jones had kindly travelled from Ivybridge to put on a power point presentation on behalf of the Axminster branch.

Margaret Spencer-Brown told those present a little about the Axminster branch. David Snelling went on to tell the parish councillors that there were 29 local groups as well as Exeter.

It is independent and non-party political representing people aged 50 and over regardless of race, creed and ability.

It identifies problems, has a positive approach to life and promotes ideas, action and solutions. It promotes the quality of life for older people including the integration with other generations and be transparent and candid when using the media. They should maintain a high level of communication with members and be receptive to all reasonable suggestions and directions.

David Snelling gave examples of issues: health; loneliness; social activities; learning; leisure; finance; mobility; transport and value for money.

The presentation was well received.

Pamela Johnson gave a summary of things the Axminster branch had achieved and thanked the parish council for asking Axminster Senior's Forum to speak and David Snelling and Paul Jones for their presence.

Garden evolution excites group

THE Axminster and District Horticultural Society met on Wednesday, January 20th for a talk and slide show by Jenny Short entitled History of Garden Styles.

She took the members on a trip through the ages of fashion and style in gardens starting with the Middle Ages around 1066 when monasteries and abbeys had gardens in which herbs, flowers and vegetables were grown for medicinal remedies and food for the monks. Henry VIII destroyed the monasteries and the gardens were lost.

Fortified manors developed and the gardens were in the centre again and were used for food and medicine. A slide of a 17th century garden at Lambeth Palace showed how the gardens would have been at that time.

Rosa Mundi would have been grown for its scent, useful for potpourri to cover the smells that went with poor sanitation at that time. In 1545 the first botanic garden was established. Ships were travelling to far distant shores and plants and seeds were making their way back to Europe. Gardens were developing, these were formal with knott gardens being very popular.

Between 1700 and 1800 mazes became popular and the Ha-ha was developed. The Ha-ha gave estates with large gardens the opportunity to have sweeping vistas without fences and the ability to keep stock out.

A large ditch was dug around the perimeter of the garden making a barrier for the animals whilst looking from the house it seemed the garden went on into the countryside. Memberswas a picture of Knighthayes in which one features.

Capability Brown — a garden designer — became very popular doing away with formal flower beds and making an undulating vista with trees and water as the main features. Sheffield Park being an example of his work.

Lakes, grottos and rockeries followed. We saw examples from Stourhead, Chatsworth House and a Grecian Valley at Stowe. Cascades became fashionable as seen at Hestercombe.

A trick of making a small modest lake look larger was done by putting an island in to make the water appear to go on much further around the corner when in fact it stopped.

The vistorian era was everything being done on a grand scale again. Everything and anything was exaggerated. The Japanese style of garden followed with its shrubs, stones and serenity.

Large flower beds followed with swathes of blooms blending in with each other as seen at Great Dixter.

Gertrude Jekyll and Edward Lutchens worked together on many gardens. The 1930s saw the development of places to sit, what today is called the outside room. Wild meadows, easy maintenance and somewhere to entertain outdoors have become popular now. What will the trend be in a few years time?

Jenny Short gave an interesting talk while showing slides of many famous gardens. Members found the evening very informative.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, February 17th when the very popular photographer Colin Varndell will give a talk on Hidden Dorset.

The meeting will be in the United Reformed Church Hall, Chard Street at 7.30pm.

Rail club begins its year with annual meeting and slideshow

THE first gathering of the year for Thorncombe Rail Activities Club started with the annual meeting, which was followed by a talk entitled South by West with a Westerly Wind, given by Amyas Crump.

Amyas started his slideshow from London proceeding down the main line and exploring a lot of the branch lines on the way.

Visiting some of the many lines that once were a part of life on the Isle of Wight, getting more local we had a look around the Yeovil area and then progressed to the Chard, Lyme Regis and Seaton branches before finishing up in the Exeter area.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday February 17th when John Penny of Network Rail will be talking on Axminster and the LSWR line upgrades, and illustrating it with a power point presentation.

The meeting starts at 7.30pm in Thorncombe Village Hall. Refreshments will be available. Non-members are welcome but a small charge is made.

False claims from EDDC

EDITOR — I agree with Tony Rhodes that EDDC should be scrapped as soon as possible.

Not because of its failure to grit the streets of Ottery St Mary, but because of Sarah Randall-Johnson's expensive campaign to 'protect her little empire'.

But more important was her claim to be more cost efficient and more democratic.

Both these claims were false. On the first point, log on to http://oneplace.direct.gov.uk to see that EDDC scrapes only two points out of four in every category.

On the second point, I am appalled by EDDC's roughshod treatment of the people of Seaton and district over Tesco, the beach shelter, the stage managed public consultation, and the Green Dragon.

Where was democracy when these dictatorial tactics were employed?

What traffic disruption?

EDITOR — With regard to Tesco's plans to bring infill to the site in Seaton — will the pipe that is bringing the dredged material onshore block Harbour Road to traffic for the proposed three months of the operation?

They are building a mound to assess how the infill compacts. How can this give reliable results unless they use the same material they intend to dredge from the sea?

Also there appears to be no information about the effect of the new buildings on the raised infill.

Council should get site back

EDITOR — Over one year ago I had a letter published in a local newspaper regarding the entire Lyme Bay and Tesco issue.

I used to be a county councillor in Somerset, and can verify that very little of the democratic debate be it the concerned public or councillors really gets listened to, most big decisions are made by faceless highly paid officers at local and national government levels.

It wasn't many months ago that a bigwig at EDDC told us that now the Tesco decision had been made we should all rally behind it and make the best of a planning decision which virtually everyone could see was fundamentally flawed and the outcome would never achieve real benefit for Seaton.

As I mentioned the site in question historically is not land with a marketable value, it is floodplain and in these days of awareness of climate change rising sea levels and extreme weather it is plain madness to believe that only Seaton will escape the possibility of major coastal flooding, we must thank the Axe Yacht Club for encouraging the building of natural sea defences that has averted countless instances where the eastern end of Harbour Road has been spared flooding.

I would be simply amazed if that site was ever anybodys to sell, by law the land exposed between high and low water be it seashore or estuary is owned by the crown.

Everyone knew that when Lyme Bay took over from Haven it was for a short term lease, whilst the Liatris proposal was for the derelict western side of the holiday camp which Lyme Bay didn't want.

I very much doubt whether any of this large site was ever on the open market as land be it for agriculture, building or brownfield site?

I think we should quite literally assume the wording 'site acquired by Tesco' is correct, it has been offered by EDDC land which by rights should be part of the Seaton marshes.

If Seaton Town Council has the means to purchase Willoughby House or Winston's why didn't someone from Seaton Town Council suggest the people of Seaton could have done far better in managing a tourism-local facility utilising the swimming pool, gym, creche and let's not forget the main Lyme Bay building had a sizeable restaurant and ballroom — all facilities that a seaside resort should have.

Chalet accommodation could and should be modern units and the site could and should have been intertwined with the modern conservation ethos of the Seaton marshes eco reserve.

Such chalets wouldn't need planning approval in the way substantial buildings would, it wouldn't really matter too much if the site did flood occasionally, the chalets could be raised on stilts thus lessening any impact of flood probabability.

Is it not too late for EDDC to acquire the site back off Tesco as in this case Seaton knows what is needed to regenerate the resort working in harmony with nature, not by tearing up every planning rule in the book regarding a sensitive natural coastal environment.

Majority against scandalous application by chain store

EDITOR — Have the inmates taken over the Asylum?

Or have you got it wrong when you tell us that "EDDC has concerns about the potential long-term impact of the proposal to allow Tesco to experiment with infill materials on their site — for example Seaton's floodplain?

And you don't stop there — you also report that The Marine and Fisheries Agency don't like it, either.

Can you think of any good reason why EDDC rushed to approve Tesco's application without first asking for details of just how the site was to be raised by two metres?

And if a method can be found, to satisfy all the parties — except the majority of Seaton's residents, of course — which EDDC councillors were naive enough to approve this vague application, which "will also provide much-needed housing, some of it affordable"?

My bet is that the cost of buying the raised land from Tesco — and building the houses on it — will put the prices well out of the reach of first time buyers.

To cap it all, a little while ago you told us that councillor Sara Randall Johnson, Leader of EDDC, found it "unbelievable that the Boundary Commission would decide in favour of the Devon Unitary Authority despite the 'vast majority' of EDDC voters being against it."

Poor councillor Johnson.

Now she knows exactly what the vast majority of Seatonians feel about the scandalous approval — by EDDC — of the Tesco applications.

Boardwalks are essential

EDITOR — Mark Hayes' 'safety gone overboard' is wide of the mark regarding the paths in Roundball Wood.

The boardwalks he criticises are designed to help visitors keep to the designated route instead of diverting round patches of mud, widening the paths and increasing the problem.

People will still be experiencing nature! May I remind him of the need for reasonable access to the public?

This semi-ancient woodland is hardly disturbed by such walks. They are constructed of natural material and far more in keeping with the environment than any solid or surfaced path would be and better than an impossible sea of mud.

As someone who regularly visits this special place to make records of diverse plant life I think he is making a mountain out of a molehill.

February's tips from Oliver at David Gear Horticultural

Thank goodness the snow has gone - who needs it? Of course the cold weather is good for the garden if not for us as it does kill a lot of diseases that might otherwise linger in the soil.

For those of you with access to the Internet, my best advice for a diverting hour or so is to go to www.weekendgardener.net where you can find lots of useful seasonal advice and use their amazing calendar pages, such an amazing application and ENTIRELY FREE.

Business is growing in the workshop as the canny gardeners amongst you are getting their machines ready for the Spring already - do bear in mind that the longer you leave it to get your machines serviced the longer you'll have to wait for it to be returned.

We now have a great selection of machines IN STOCK and can supply all makes and types of machinery so do visit us before going to the big sheds - we give great service at competitive prices.

KATE ERIN MEW

Country chaos

BEFORE I start ranting, let me just make it clear how much I do actually appreciate living in east Devon.

There are ups and downs that go hand-in-hand wherever you live in the world, but there are definitely more ups to living here rather than, for instance, the part of the Home Counties from which I hail originally.

Some may snigger at the stories local papers like this carry. But I can tell you now, I'd much rather be writing 'community' headlines than the kind that emblazon some of the London and city newspaper front pages — robberies, stabbings, murders. Give me a WI fete anyday over everyday muggings on my doorstep.

So, readers I should now be clear that I am happy where I live and content with the 'steady' pace of life which makes the area such a joy to reside within. However, sometimes, just sometimes, it can get under your skin. Usually, when you're in a hurry — which I nearly always am.

Late one afternoon last week, I planned to go to my mum's in Uplyme to see the bridesmaids' dresses which had arrived at her house ready for my marriage to My Lovely Farmer in the summer.

Time was a little tight but I needed to pick up a wedding-related parcel from Colyton Post Office en route.

As I entered the quaint little shop, which caters for everything you could expect from a post office and more (even cake-making accessories), I noticed there was one person being served and one waiting. Not a long queue I'm sure you would agree. So I positioned myself in line.

The person was served quickly by the postmaster and the gentleman in front of me was up next. He must have had a hundred envelopes to be posted (this may be a slight exaggeration on my part). I was, of course, intrigued as to what was the content of these parcels but thought I'd better not ask!

I waited patiently whilst the postmaster served him in a friendly manner at his one-counter post office area. I waited for 20 minutes. It couldn't be helped of course. It's just luck of the draw.

I did worry for the lady who queued behind me who was desperate to get to the charity shop, for a teapot she had her eye on, which closed at 4pm. I hope she got it.

I was happy enough when I received my exciting wedding-related parcel though and I was on my way to see the lovely bridesmaid dresses so nothing could dampen my spirits. Or so I thought.

From Colyton to Musbury (via feeding my horse), I decided to take a 'short-cut' through Combpyne. Not only a chance to take in the beautiful scenery and idyllic village but also it might make up some of my lost time. More fool me.

I am, having lived in the area for about 16 years now, someone who should know better. The scenery was indeed beautiful but the shocking potholes (no doubt much worse following the recent bad weather) were not. My little car took a bit of a battering along the way but this wasn't the worst of it.

I came to a bend and met a car in the country lane. I hadn't noticed where my nearest passing point was, so I had to put trust in the other driver. She creeped towards me so I guessed that my passing point was nearer than hers, so I reversed.

I don't know how far I reversed in yards (or metres) but it was a fair few. It was also round a bend plus my rear window wiper had decided, at that moment, to fail me so I just had my side mirrors. I finally found the much-needed passing point. The other driver thanked me and I was on my way.

I got as far as the same bend as before and met another car. What are the chances? Such a quiet lane, or so I had thought. Into reverse went the car and back I went, it seemed like forever — although this time I moved considerably faster due to the first practice. On I went.

You'll never guess. Yes, yet another vehicle! It was at this point that I wondered if I was being punished for something. I reversed, having it down to a fine art by now and continued on my way.

So, my quick pop into the post office and take a country lane short-cut backfired spectacularly.

It was a pain but I wouldn't swap for the 45-minute south London commute to get 12 miles I used to travel to work — and it all melted away when I finally set eyes on those lovely dresses.

Pulman's View from the churches

With Nigel Speller

AS unemployment rises, Axminster Churches Together is actively pursuing a project to set up a job club once a week on a Thursday morning in the Methodist church hall.

The aim will be to offer practical support to people who are looking for work. Statutory agencies have been very supportive and we are seeking grants and additional volunteers to get us up and running.

We are committed to running it in partnership with interested members of the wider community and fuller details will be available as plans develop. This new initiative deserves much support.

Do any readers remember an earlier project in Axminster led by the then rector, Barrie Swift, which resulted in the establishment of Axe Works which had premises opposite the entrance to Axninster Hospital?

Members of Axe Works were engaged in various projects supporting local communities. These included redecorating church halls, and painting the pylons along the line of the Seaton Tramway.

Last week, we revealed in this column that the Lords Spiritual (The Bishops) in the House of Lords had rejected a Government bill which would change the law regarding recruitment of church workers including priests and ministers, with special attention to religious freedom and private conduct.

As I write this column, some of our national daily newspapers carry on their front-page news that the Pope has joined in the criticism of the Government, accusing it of pursuing unjust equality laws. So to our readers we say, remember where you read about it first — in Pulman's View!

Financial concerns trouble many of us at this time, not least the churches and chapels of our land. It is well known that the Church of England relies to a large extent on contributions from local parishes to pay its local clergy. Additionally, the church has considerable central resources managed by church commissioners based at Westminster, to finance training and recruitment, housing of retired members, payment of central staff and some assistance for church buildings.

It is bad news this week that the £4.4billion assets of the church commissioners have been reduced by a £40million loss in a disastrous property investment in America, which amounts to one per cent of its total assets. This follows on a £352million shortfall in clergy pension funds which is still being addressed.

The church commissioners are reported to be looking carefully at the lessons learnt by these experiences. Local Anglican churches will know that they are also asked to contribute to the cost of their clergy and the current situation makes it even more important that their contributions are maintained.

Alastair McCollum, from Kilmington, from the 5 Alive Mission Community, tells me that he is endeavouring to improve communications by bringing people into the 20th, if not the 21st century! There is a Twitter account that people can follow and there are regular updates from http://twitter.com/5alivemc and a Facebook page which I am in the process of setting up — can't get a shorter name than http://www.facebook.com/pages/Axminster-United-Kingdom/The-Five-Alive-Mission-Community/319488339675?v=wall at present so have set up a shortcut address: http://tinyurl.com/yzluyph.

Our main website is in progress, but it is suspected that it will need a fair amount of work!

In the meantime, further news from the Yarty Valley; where vicar Alastair McCollum says he is now meeting monthly in the Yarcombe Inn for a 'free for all' discussion evening which is being called Agnostics Anonymous. It takes place on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 8pm and will try to talk around a theme each month.

Julian Meetings continue on the second Monday of the month at 7.30pm for 8pm at Westfield, Colyford Road, Seaton. Contact 01297 22314.

On St Valentine's Day, February 14th in St Andrew's Church, Colyton, there is a relationships and marriage service at 6.30pm with refreshments after.

The season of Lent begins in our churches shortly, with a pancake lunch at Colyton Methodist Hall on February 16th at 12.30pm and Ploughman's lunches on subsequent Tuesdays until March 23rd. Leisure lunches are resting until 12.30pm on April 22nd in Colyton.

On Wednesday evenings in Lent, starting on February 24th, there will be Compline in St Andrew's Church, Colyton, at 7.30pm.

The farewell service for all churches in the benefice will be at St Andrew's Church, Colyton, on February 21st at 10.30am. Farewell gifts may be paid into Lloyds Bank, Colyton, by February 12th.

Then just to make sure they have arrived at West Exe, coaches to the Licensing Service of Father Nicholas Edwards will run on Monday evening, March 8th, for a service starting at 7.30pm with refreshments afterwards. Coach seats can be booked in church now.

College fundraising day goes smoothly for head

A SERIES of fundraising events for the Haiti Earthquake Appeal raised almost £1,000 at Axe Valley Community College.

There was no shortage of ideas, so events included cake sales, non-uniform and the shaving of headteacher Martin Smith's legs to mention only a few.

The total raised came to £917.74, and headteacher Smith said: "Students and staff were determined to make a contribution to the appeal.

"Like everyone, we were struck by the scenes of devastation that the earthquake inflicted on the people of Haiti.

"Our Haiti Appeal Day had two aims; to raise as much money as possible for the aid effort; secondly to educate our students about the impact of natural disasters and how non-governmental organisations and other organisations provide aid.

"We are very grateful to those that were involved, including the Red Cross who provided workshops."

Transformation of St Clare's Adult Education Centre

DURING the past few months builders have been very busy making improvements to St Clare's Adult Education Centre in Seaton.

The main entrance hall has a lift installed to the first floor making the first floor classrooms accessible to those who may have difficulty with the stairs and one of these rooms has been converted into an art room.

The old art room is unrecognisable having been totally renovated and divided into two rooms, one of which is a modern IT suite with 12 computers complete with Microsoft Vista and broadband Internet connection. The other room also has computers and is used to provide computing support to enhance any of our courses but is mainly used as a Skills for Life teaching space for those wanting to improve or brush up on their English and Maths – courses which incidentally are free!

The Pottery has been moved to a larger, airier room giving more space for those wishing to explore their creative and artistic side.

Together with a renovated heating system to keep you warm and comfortable now is the time to check out the new courses starting at St Clare's Adult Education Centre in February and after Easter.

For more details about adult learning courses please call in at St Clare's in Fore Street, Seaton and pick up a Spring/Summer brochure or, telephone My Devon on 0845 155 1014.

With the recession continuing to raise stress levels throughout the region we have a range of short courses to help reduce stress and improve well being starting in February such as Reiki, Shiatsu, Alexander Technique, Crystals and Chakras.

Pupils team up in vibrant art exhibition

THE Woodroffe School, Lyme Regis, and Axe Valley Community College, Axminster, are currently serving up two galleries of "vibrant and exciting" artwork.

Formally named The Annual Woodroffe Art Show, the exhibition, at The Town Mill, Lyme Regis, offers what organisers describe as "vibrant and exciting work including a diverse breadth of ideas, techniques and media".

At the opening evening, Dot Wood, the Director of Arts at Woodroffe presented two Arts College awards, one for each school.

The Woodroffe award was won by Harriet Secrett who has developed consistently and conscientiously through the Arts College structure at Woodroffe.

She achieved an A* at GCSE Art whilst she was in year 9, and an A at AS Art when in year 11 and is currently studying for the Applied Art award which is worth 2 A levels.

The Axe Valley prize was awarded to Jodie Miller for her sculptural body form inspired by the assemblages of Joseph Cornell.

Her piece is hanging in a deep window recess in the gallery and is lit from inside its paper form with tiny white lights which attract the eye to its conceptual and insightful details.

The exhibition continues on February 13th and 14th and is open from 11am to 4 pm.

Bubbling with country news

A BUBBLING cauldron of news and views this week! First, Dorset Wildlife Trust is asking for help from local people to assist with the management of King Barrow quarries on the Isle of Portland, which are home to a wide range of chalk-loving plants and butterflies, including the Adonis blue.

Winter scrub clearing is essential to ensure the area is alive with butterflies and flowers in the summer and if you would like to help, a volunteering day will take place on Friday, February 26, from 10am to 3pm. Meet at the reserve entrance by the name stone on Yeates Road, just off the A354. Tools and gloves will be supplied, but bring lunch and something to drink. Further details on 01305 816546 or 07807 835063.

The Urban Heaths Partnership, based at Corfe Mullen, has created a website for dog owners, called Dorset Dogs. It will feature news about sites and routes across Dorset, including on and off-lead areas, information about control, canine news and links to further information on other sites. Go to www.dorsetdogs.org.uk.

The group is also holding a Doggy Festival at Poole Park on Sunday, March 28th from 10am to 4pm. This will include micro-chipping, stalls, stands, agility and obedience displays and a fun dog show. For further information email Su Powner on su.powner@dorsetcc.gov.uk.

Next, how about taking part in a Wet and Wild Weekend at Seaton Marshes Local Nature Reserve over the period February 13th to 15th? You can just turn up and watch birds from the hide at Colyford Common, join the Axe Estuary Ringing Group at Stafford Marsh, spot birds around the 'Black Hole' or simply watch and try to identify the birds and animals on the estuary.

An experienced guide will be on hand and free binoculars and telescopes will be available. Drop-in activities will take place on the Saturday from 1pm to 4pm; and on Sunday and Monday from 10am to 4pm.

As car parking is difficult, Seaton Tramway will run trams on the hour at a reduced rate from Seaton to Black Hole Marsh where a temporary halt will take place. Return trams will leave at around 10 minutes past each hour and car parking for the trams is available in the Pay and Display car park adjacent to Seaton Tramway.

A feature event will be the chance to take a free of charge tram from Seaton along the edge of the estuary as dusk falls to watch and listen to birds coming in to roost. An experienced guide will be on hand and the tram will stop at intervals. Trams will depart at 5pm to return at 7pm on Saturday and Sunday. Parking for the Wet and Wild Weekend will also be available at Colyford Memorial Hall on Saturday and Monday, but not on the Sunday.

Who knows, you might even spot the spoonbill which has been seen resting in Colyford Marsh or on the estuary, while whooper and Bewick swans have also made sporadic appearances in the area.

Wildfowl seen after the freeze have been a handful of gadwall, two female goosanders, three pintail and several Mediterranean gulls, while on the ringing front, some 74 shelldduck, 19 wigeon and a mallard were caught on Seaton Marshes on January 27, though 55 of the shelduck had previously been trapped and ringed.

The winter may not yet be over, for February can be notoriously fickle, but it is so encouraging to see the garden flecked with the white of snowdrops, while daffodils are shooting up on all sides, buds are swelling on bushes and trees and there is a sense of hope and anticipation as birds are beginning to inspect potential nest sites. A reminder, then, that, nesting boxes should be inspected and cleaned, and new ones erected in suitable sites.

WIN! HALF-TERM HOLIDAY CLUB PLACES

Leisure East Devon (LED) has another half-term week of active fun for children planned at its Kidzmix Day Camps throughout East Devon and is offering Pulman's View From readers the chance to win one of three free Day Camp days at an LED centre of your choice.

If you're aged between 5 and 11 you're sure to enjoy the wide range of activities on offer from sports and fitness fun to arts and crafts, dancing, Wii games and discos, as well as some more unusual pursuits such as mat sliding and circus skills!

Kidzmix Day Camps are running between 15–19 February at Honiton Swimming and Leisure Centre, Ottery St Mary Leisure Centre, Axe Valley Leisure Centre, Sidmouth Leisure Centre & Swimming Pool, as well as Exmouth Tennis and Leisure Centre. Day Camp programmes run from 8.30am to 5pm and both full and half days are available so whilst parents are busy at work, youngsters can be making new friends, getting active and having lots of fun.

For Kidzmix fun in smaller measures, Pick 'n' Mix sessions are available in our Honiton, Sidmouth and Exmouth facilities. These include FunSplash with inflatables, Waterwalkers and themed parties. Another option for children who love sport is attending one of our Sportzones, which offer high quality coaching in sports such as football, swimming and tennis.

If you're not lucky enough to win one of our three Day Camp prizes, we'd still love to see you at one of our centres during half term! Pre-booking is best but you can turn up on the day providing we have spaces left. Prices start from as little as £1.20* for Pick 'n' Mix activities. 50% discounts on Kidzmix Day Camp prices are available for Active 317 members.

And finally, a boring but very important fact for Mums and Dads is that all Kidzmix staff are fully CRB checked and the full day-care Kidzmix settings are Ofsted registered.

For full information on activities and timetables at each centre, visit www.ledleisure.co.uk/Kidzone/ or speak to Catherine Potter on 01404 814317.

For your chance to win one of three free Kidzmix Day Camp days at an LED leisure centre of your choice, see if you can spot all five of the exciting activities on offer in our wordsearch:

1. Wii
2. Football
3. Drama
4. Bowling
5. Archery

DREAMS DO COME TRUE

DREAMS really do come true, according to Fairy Godmother, Mary Bowles, who is fulfilling one of her personal dreams this year, playing her favourite character in Seaton Pantomime Society's 10th Anniversary production of CINDERELLA.

Back in 2000 it all started with an original Cinderella script by local man John Seward, and to mark the occasion they are returning to that much loved story.

This time they have a different, but extremely funny, script (which has had some adaptations to bring it up to date and localise it. Add to this a stunning stage set, colourful costumes plus an enthusiastic and talented cast, all under the expert direction of Val Christmas, this promises to be the usual annual treat for all the family!

The ugly sisters are played by the ever popular Ian Waite and new boy "I'm a laydee" Wayne Sinnott.

Talented Martha Woolley, who was 'the beast' last year, has now unmasked to play Prince Charming. Emma Lewis is delightful as Cinderella, and the couple certainly harmonise together beautifully. Alison Bennett takes on her first principal role as Dandini (with a bit of a twist). Thespians, Debbie Bradley and Mick Redston play the comical Baron and Baroness Mum (very much Hyacinth Bouquet and spouse).

There are foot tapping songs, snazzy dance routines and plenty to laugh and Boo at, in fact something for everyone!

The question on everybody's lips is "Will Norman Bowles remember his lines this year?" Well, you'll have to go along to Seaton Town Hall, between 17th and 20th February to find out! Tickets are now on sale at Byrne Jones, Marine Place, Seaton. Traditionally this show sells out quickly… So don't delay!

◆ DREAMING: Mary Bowles is playing the Fairy Godmother

◆ UGLY SISTERS: Ian Waite and Wayne Sinnott

◆ REHEARSALS: Performers learn their dance moves

Award-winning record fair returns

BRIDPORT'S quarterly Vinyl Saturday event which attracts music collectors from all over the country, will be held on Saturday, February 20th with Record Fairs in The Electric Palace and The Ropemakers Pub, in addition to the many shops and market traders who also participate by selling records and cds.

Bridport was the first town in Europe to organise a themed event for collectors of records and it has been recognized by Record Collector Magazine, who have awarded Vinyl Saturday the status of "Record Fair Of The Year" for 2009.

The recent resurgence in Record Collecting has certainly benefitted Bridport in attracting music fans to the town and the organizer Roy Gregory's always keen for as many shops and market stalls to participate by selling records, cds and music memorabilia.

2010 will see Vinyl Saturday Bridport aiming to win the award again, by developing the event with evening entertainment plus an additional record and cd fair on the Sunday, with the aim of attracting music fans to stay for a few days and sample the delights of Bridport.

Axeon to power extended range electric Citroën c1 ev'ie

AXEON, Europe's largest independent lithium-ion battery systems supplier, is to develop a new high capacity battery for the electric Citroën C1 ev'ie, manufactured by the UK-based Electric Car Corporation, with a view to supplying between 300 and 500 batteries in the 12 months following a successful trial.

Axeon, based in Dundee, is Europe's leading designer, developer and manufacturer of customised advanced lithium-ion battery packs and charging systems for a wide range of automotive and other applications, with its core business in developing and supplying such systems for use in electric and hybrid electric vehicles.

Axeon will provide a pre-production battery pack that combines an advanced battery with an energy density of 230Wh/kg and innovative mechanical design, meaning not only improved battery efficiency, but also improved performance and extended range in a smaller, lighter and less rigid package.

Key to the package will be Axeon's proprietary battery management system (BMS), which plays an essential role in any multiple cell battery pack. It monitors the state of a battery, measuring and controlling key performance parameters, which ensures the battery operates safely and prolongs its useful life.

Lawrence Berns, CEO of Axeon, said: "We are delighted to be working with the Electric Car Corporation. This agreement is an endorsement of our technology development plans, further underlining our capabilities in the battery sector and our dominant position in the market, allowing us to capitalize on opportunities and continue to grow the company."

David Martell, Chief Executive of the Electric Car Corporation commented: "ECC is committed to stimulating the use of electric vehicles across the UK and we aim to supply our customers with high quality, comfortable, safe and reliable vehicles. We are excited to see how the new Axeon battery performs and believe it will help improve the already class-leading C1 ev'ie."

The existing Citroën C1 ev'ie has a range of more than 60 miles and a top speed of 60mph. It has been described by Car magazine as "the electric car class leader" and by Autocar as "the first 'respectable' electric city car on the British market".

Golf is Safest Car of 2009

FOR the first time ever, the EuroNCAP Institute in Brussels compiled all of its crash test results for the year 2009 and named the safest car of the year: The Golf won out against the competition with a total of 103 points.

The Golf had already attained a five-star EuroNCAP rating in the year 2008. Initially, this testing programme – conducted since 1997 – only assessed frontal crashes, side crashes and pedestrian protection. After stricter criteria were introduced at the beginning of 2009, the Golf was re-tested, and it performed impressively in all four categories: Occupant protection of adults, protection of children, pedestrian protection and supporting safety and driver assistance systems. The bestseller from Wolfsburg once again attained the coveted five star rating with the top score of 103 points, earning it the title of "Safest Car of 2009". In total, 33 cars were tested last year under the new, stricter and more extensive EuroNCAP crash testing procedure.

Electronic safety and assistance systems that help prevent accidents and serious injuries are now also incorporated in the rating of the new, stricter assessment method. The Golf offers maximum safety with standard safety features that include ESP with counter-steer assist, ABS with braking assistance, anti-slip regulation (ASR), electronic differential lock (EDS), engine drag torque control (MSR), trailer stabilisation, Isofix mounting brackets for two child seats on the rear bench as well as airbags for driver and front passenger with passenger-side deactivation, including knee airbag for the driver and a head airbag system for front and rear passengers with side airbags.

The Golf not only fulfils European safety standards. In 2008, the compact car earned the prestigious title of "Top Safety Pick" – awarded by the independent US safety institute "Insurance Institute for Highway Safety" (IIHS). In this evaluation, vehicles were tested in a frontal crash at 40 mph (64 km/h) and in a side crash at 31 mph (50 km/h) with a movable barrier shaped like the front end of an SUV. In addition, seat behaviour was studied in a rear-end crash.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

LAST week saw the fourth of the Exeter 3K Winter Series held at Exeter Arena and AVR were represented by five keen juniors. Matt Morbey was promoted to the B race this time and ran an impressive 11:31 up against some fast adults.

In race C Layla Felgate glided round in 11:50, with Ellis Bee finishing in 12:12 saying "never again"... again! Race D saw Lydia Clapp do a PB of 13:28 with Chloe Burrough doing her debut run in an excellent 13:58.

On Sunday In Graham Newton ran the "Oh my Obelisk" race. It was an 11 mile multi-terrain race from Dawlish Leisure Centre to the Obelisk monument in Haldon Forest and back. The race was won in about 1 hour 7 minutes and Graham ran superbly to be the over 60 champion in about 1:32:20.

On Sunday morning Luke Reed took part in the Fulfords five miles in Exmouth. It is a fast and fairly flat two lap course. The course certainly lived up to its reputation for Luke as he powered round smashing his PB by over 11⁄2 mins finishing 14th out of 259 in 28:50.

Due to many setbacks Harry Moore has not been in action since November 29th. He fell on the ice in January and knocked himself out, then had a bout of very high blood pressure and now he is waiting for a hernia operation.

None of that stopped him having a go at the Fulfords Five. Not being in peak form Harry struggled somewhat, but still managed to get around finishing in 1:04:40.

The Four Trigs is a 16 mile hard, hilly, muddy run with four trig points plus five other points to get your card stamped. The route is not marked and some map reading is an advantage. This, however, was not going to be a tough enough challenge for our crazy "I can't get puffed out" chairman Garry Parrett who had to run it twice. His first run started at 6am, ready to run again at 9.30 with the rest of us. First runner in was James Jackson who ran a brilliant race.

First AVR finisher was new member Guy Lavender in sixth place which was outstanding - Welcome to the club. The next in was Matt Tubbs getting fitter by the day.

He worked hard to get a great time of 3hrs.2mins. He said he found the last steps a killer, but still manage to eat a Desperate Dan sized Pasty at the end.

Eleanor Wood and Bernard Fry came next over the line in just over three hours, they had been with Garry until Weston when Garry decided to slow down a bit. I wonder why?

He came in around 10 minutes later. Sue Tubbs was the next AVR to complete the course, looking forward to a well deserved cake made by her hubby.

The Pasties and cakes were well received afterwards. Many thanks to Sidmouth running club for again putting on such a splendid event.

Monday evening's February handicap produced a very close finish. Gary Davies was the winner in 25:23, knocking nearly two mins off his PB. Clare Hansford was second, 27:42; again this was a very good PB. John Blackledge came third taking 2:30, Bernard Fry 4th, 22:12 and Eleanor Wood 5th, 24:21.

First across the line was non scorer Alex Todd in a remarkable 19:49, with Dave Braunton, also a non-scorer second in 29:24, over a minute quicker than he has run it before.

◆ AXE VALLEY juniors who competed at the Exeter arena: Chloe Burrough, Ellis Bee, Layla Felgate, Matt Morbey and Lydia Clapp.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF with Helen Gaudie

THE men played their seventh round of the Winter League. In first place with a massive 48 points were father and son, Alan and Wayne Vincent. In second place, beaten by only point, were the Winter League leaders M. Cottam and B. Waller with 47 points. Third spot, and beating quite a few teams on count-back ruling were S. Orren and M. Rymer with 44 points.

At last the Ladies managed to play some golf. It was a Stableford competition, there was nine hole and a 18 hole competition. The winner of the 18 hole competition was Sandra Walker (14) with 34 points and second was Pauline Standerwick (30) with 30 points. The nine hole competition was won by Helen Gaudie (25) with 15 points and second was Liz Wheeldon.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Texas Scramble: THE rain had held off but a fine mist shrouded the course as the players met for their 8.15am shotgun start.

We were formed into teams of three playing off 10 percent of a combined handicap. The Texas scramble format requires the team to choose the best positioned ball of the three shots and each player to play his ball from there until a ball is successfully holed. My own team decided that our best ball down the first was the one nestling in the green side bunker which tells you why we were nowhere near the winning scores. That honour fell to Paul and Merv Blackmore and their partner Stu Selway with a fantastic 62.1. Second and third could not have been closer with Andy Harrison, John Marchant and Alan Seager's 63.5 successfully pipping Steve Morris, James Lambert and Dave Lavender's 63.6 by that .1 of a shot! The Captain, Nick Richards, had a huge smile on his face as he handed out the prizes because his team of Jason Gosling, Keith Crane and himself had scored the only two of the day on the seventh. It took all three putts to hole it but they walked away with 46 golf balls to share between them.

Tuesday Mixed: This week the format for the competition was the popular American Foursomes. Due to the heavy rain the competition was played over 14 holes.

The winning pair were Ro Poole and John Frith with 29 pts. 2nd with 26 pts - Olwen Eaton and Richard Pyle. 3rd with 25 pts on c/b and, keeping it in the family, Jennifer Pyle and Bill Eaton. 4th also 25 pts. Lady vice-captain Sue Ritchie and Mike Watts.

Ladies Section: Due to the course closure the Mail on Sunday match against Woodbury had to be played at Woodbury. It was played on the Black Course on Oaks. The greens were in very good condition but through the greens it was very wet indeed and both sides struggled for distance. It went down to the last match where Honiton needed a outright win, the very creditable half was just not enough therefore Woodbury go through to the next round with a 3/2 win over Honiton.

B Team Dinner: The usual raucous festivities of the B team dinner on Friday were tinged with a touch of sadness as Tim Avery, the team's sponsor, relinquished the captaincy ahead of taking up his duties as incoming club captain John Stabb's vice-captain.

Tim had looked after the B Team for the past four years and had lead us to many fine victories throughout that time. He'll be a hard act to follow but the mantle now falls to Andy Harrison who is already looking for players for the first games of the season. Those wishing to join in the fun should put up their names on the sheets provided. Thanks again to Tim for all his hard work and good luck to Andy for the coming year.

WINDWHISTLE
with Pete Hamilton-Walsh

SATURDAY saw a good turnout for the usual roll-up with 27 players joining in the days play.

It was a poor scoring game due to the playing conditions not being at their best. This week saw the first week in the last four that had a male dominated winning pack.The playing format was 7/8ths of club handicap over a stapleford scoring system.The best score on the day was achieved by Granville Holland who took the overall winner spot with 34points.

But Holland, not being content with that, also won the back nine with 19pts,he came joint second on the front nine along with G.Chubb and M.Wilkes with all three scoring 15pts. But this still wasn't good enough for Holland and after a great Tee shot on the 12th par 3 he managed to secure the winning place for "nearest the pin" Other winners on the day were, second overall were M.Barry and G.Ambridge with 30pts. 1st on the front was M.Barry with 16pts. Second on the back was G.Ambridge who also had 16pts. The 'wooden spoon' along with the title of 'worst score of the day' went to Bob Clampett who only managed a disappointing 15pts. Bob said that despite his poor performance he was relatively pleased with his game and hoped to continue with his game plan for the near future.

Rugby round-up with Keith Jenkin

MOST local clubs were involved in catch up league fixtures on Saturday last, the exception being Bridport at both first and second team level. The Chard third side too was without a game. I decided to travel to Chard to take in their game against Wells, a game they really had to win if they were to figure in any promotion shake up.

SIDMOUTH 22pts IVYBRIDGE 5pts

THERE would have been both delight and relief in throughout the Sidmouth camp after they had won this vital South West League Division One (West) encounter. On a Blackmoor that recent rain had made heavy underfoot, the home started with the breeze behind them, and started most positively.

Their pressure paid off as early as the second minute when they took the lead via the boot of Dan Retter who landed a penalty goal; and followed this some five minutes later with an unconverted try by Finch after the Trim brothers had linked at the base of a five metre scrummage and put him over in the corner.

The Sidmouth pack, with their young front row of Halford, Kubaczka and Farrington prominent, were going well and providing a useful platform for their backs to operate from. This they did, with Chesterton causing problems with his running and, after a run by Seward had wrong footed the visitors' defence, it conceded a penalty and Retter duly kicked the goal from in front.

He added a drop goal to his personal tally some ten minutes later and, with half an hour gone Sidmouth were fourteen points clear. Old habits then seemingly reared their ugly heads and they conceded penalties that enabled their opponents to get back into the contest and Ivybridge came close to scoring twice before the interval.

With the last play of the half however, Sidmouth got back upfield, Ivybridge infringed and Retter kicked his third penalty thus far to give his side a 17-0 lead at the halfway stage.

Ivybridge changed a prop at half time and seemingly decided that, with the wind at their backs, they would play a tighter game through their pack.

They certainly won the territorial battle of the third quarter but the home defence coped and eventually broke out through a fifty yard carry, up the touchline by winger, Finch. The cover got to him eventually but he made the ball available. It was recycled and sent wide to Chesterton who got over unopposed.

The try remained unconverted and the visitors' pack was now getting on top, aided and abetted by some wayward Sidmouth kicking out of defence.

They could not make inroads into the deficit however until just five minutes before the final whistle. At that juncture, pressure eventually told and one of their props crashed over from close range. The try remained unconverted and, in any case it was 'too little too late'.

This result gives Sidmouth a very real chance of avoiding relegation. They certainly have a couple of games that are possible wins within the next two weeks. If they can convert these, the odds on their survival will be very much in their favour and this was a big step in the right direction.

TOPSHAM 3pts HONITON 86pts

THE Topsham pitch drains well and conditions were better for running rugby than they had any right to be, given the recent weather. Honiton certainly made the most of them against a side who were rather lightweight, both in the forwards and outside, and the result was really sewn up by the end of the first quarter.

Centre Josh Barrett opened the scoring with an unconverted try very early on and De Large soon followed, when he was up to take an inside pass from Dobson who had made the break. Dobson then scored one of his own and, when full back Cook finished a move that began in his own twenty two, the total score read 22-0 in Honiton's favour with less than 20 minutes gone.

Topsham did get on the scoreboard with a penalty goal but it was their only contribution, and further first half tries from Webber, Steggles (peeling off a maul), Lock (two) and Barrett took Honiton out of sight by the halfway stage. Nex, who had added the extras to the Cook try, kicked four other first half conversions to complete the interim scoring.

It was more of the same after the oranges. Webber, who had taken over the place kicking, scored a try that he converted himself. Dobson completed his hat-trick and Spiller and Barrett both crossed.

Webber converted the last two touchdowns to complete what, although it provided a useful run out, was little more than a training session as far as Honiton were concerned.

IVYBRIDGE 3rd 17pts HONITON 2nd 15pts

THE Ivybridge third pitch slopes to the point of steepness and Honiton faced the gradient in the first half, fell foul of the home side's rather large pack and trailed by 17 points at the halfway stage, having conceded a pushover try, another from a mauled lineout and a third from a series of pick and drives.

They had the slope in their favour after the break and, although they lost flanker Williams to the early bath for dissent, scored three tries of their own in return.

Ben Clark put centre Sampson clear and their excellent scrum half nipped in twice to bring them really back into the contest, only for them to come up just short in the end.

HONITON JUNIORS

HONITON COLTS 3pts SIDMOUTH COLTS Nil

This game really proved the point that contests do not have to be high scoring ones to retain the interest. Although Honiton just about won the territorial battle against a large Sidmouth outfit, it was "nip and tuck" all the way and the only points of the game came from the boot of George Meadows who kicked a penalty goal. Open side flanker Robert Price was Honiton's Man of the Match.

PREVIEW

SIDMOUTH have a game on Saturday next that they will be looking to win if they are to successfully beat the drop. They take on ST MARY'S OLD BOYS, bottom club in the South West League Division One (West), and one who have not won a game so far this season.

If memory serves, the Blackmoor side came out on top by a single point in the encounter back in the autumn and, if they do so again, they will have taken a very significant step on the route to safety.

I think however that pressure will be mounting on them, and they can be sure that their opponents will be targeting a win, for the sake of pride if nothing else.

I think that Sidmouth are capable of notching a win. If they do so then their safety will remain very much in their own hands, if not then they will continue to look over their shoulders with apprehension.

HONITON travel to play old foes, WESSEX, looking to cement their place in the top division of the Devon League in the second half of the season. Their opponents are real scrappers and games between the sides are generally rather turgid affairs, with defences on top and where good rugby is at a premium.

Honiton have come out on top generally in recent times. I watched the game at Allhallows back in the autumn and seem to remember that the home side were winning 14-3 before Wessex scored a converted try from the final play of the game to narrow the gap.

I do take Honiton to win this one but doubt if the watchers will see too much expansive running rugby. They need to be wary though for the home side bested league leaders Totnes in their last outing, so it will be no picnic.

Honiton seconds will, I think beat visitors Bideford at Allhallows, while their colts side will have to be at its best to come back from Bideford with a win. Sidmouth seconds should have too much for its Crediton counterparts, while its third side probably faces a more stretching tussle against Crediton thirds.

Sidmouth Colts too face Crediton juniors and will do well to win that one, home advantage notwithstanding.

FOOTBALL RESULTS, FIXTURES AND TABLES

Devon & Exeter League

First Division leaders Seaton Town beat Premier outfit Sidmouth Town on their own patch 5-4 on penalties from drawing 2-2 after extra time. Bradley Groves scored both Seaton goals in regular play, and thevisitors then converted five stunning penalties to claim their place in the last four.

The Premier Division leaders Thorverton beat Feniton 5-2 having won 9-4 at their opponents ground a few months ago. The win takes the mid Devon side four points clear at the top. Scott Laskey and Marcus Riggs both scored twice, Adam Langabeer had the fifth. John Phillips and Rob Ffeiffer replied for Feniton who actually played quite well.

Struggling Upottery pulled off an excellent 1-1 draw at the University in Division 2. Dan Taylor was the Upottery scorer.

Honiton Town beat Exmouth Amateurs 3-0 with Charles Lane, Stuart Mackay and Sam Farmer scoring.

Dawlish Town led Tipton St John with new signing Rob Brelan on target but eventually missed out 3-2.

Witheridge beat Colyton 2-1 in the last minute of normal time to reach the quarter finals of the Bill Slee cup. Jamie Colman and Lee Radford scored for Withy (see match reports below).

MATCH REPORTS
Colyton 1 Witheridge 2
Bill Slee Cup R2

THIS was a very competitive game as both teams were desperate to win. Every ball was fiercely contested, having said that no player was shown a card, a testament to both the lads on the pitch and indeed to referee Lance Turner who not often praised but allowed the game to flow.

Colyton manager Keith Somers added: "Although they (witheridge) are a league higher we matched them in every department, creating a few decent chances and should have taken the lead but for a goal-line clearance by their full-back from James Tucker.

Midway through the first-half Withy scored after a deep cross was touched in from close range by their wide man. It didn't phase us and within minutes a great move down the right followed by a deep cross gave Rich Tratt a free header at the back stick."

"The second period followed the same pattern as the first with both teams really pushing for the win. The turning point was losing centre-back Wayne Waddon with a dead leg. There were at least 20 minutes left &and he had won every tackle and header all day."

With no recognised centre-back to choose from Coly were forced to reshuffle. The match was heading for extra time when, with two minutes a right wing cross was crashed against Colyton bar and dropped over the line to make it the final score 2-1.

Witheridge manager Mark Vellacott called our man of the match, sponsored by Vanier Ltd and chosen by Rob Collier it went to Kris Reid. I agree but also thought Paul Millman in midfield was excellent. Everyone put in a stirling performance and we need to take that on in the league fixtures.

Seaton Town Res 1 Offwell 3
Division Four

OFFWELL came up trumps at Seaton Reserves winning 3-1 at their promotion rivals and in doing so opened up a five point gap over them in the process.

After a sluggish opening 15 minutes they destroyed Seaton with some flowing football. Andy Lord swept Offwell into a half-time lead and second-half goals from James Dingle and Jordan Stickland put a fair reflection on the game. Seaton did score a penalty near the end and battled all the way but the outcome was never in doubt.

Offwell Manager Nick Ogden was delighted with the win and the way his team performed, he said: "For 70 minutes we were a very good team today and fully deserved this win. We knew they (Seaton) would be a hard nut to crack but our football was far superior and our defensive duties were carried out perfectly from front to back. The team played exactly as I requested and I'm very proud of them."

Lewis Couch got his manager's vote for MoM closely followed by Andy Lord. Next week is a very strong test away to Okehampton and Ogden hopes his team will respond to that test.

South-West Peninsula League

Axminster Town 1
Stoke Gabriel 3
By John Clements

WITH visitors Stoke Gabriel sitting on top of the table Axminster were expecting a tough encounter. The Tigers were boosted by centre-back Richard Challis who made his come back after being on the injured list for three months and 18-year-old new signing defender Matt Webb from Toolstation Division One outfit Elmore making his debut.

Axminster got off to a bad start and paid the price for lapses in defence when Stoke striker Glen Palmer who ran through and poked the ball into the net in the 17th minute.

This forced the Tigers onto the back foot and with Stoke always looking dangerous, it no surprises when Palmer added a second five minutes later.

The result was sealed in 68th minute when midfielder Kevin Wills ran onto the ball and shot home from 20 yards to make it 3-0.

Axminster did score an 80th minute consolation when a well-taken free-kick from midfielder Alex Wheatley found centre-back Mike Hancock who powered home his header at the far post.

Whilst Stoke looked the best team to have played at Sector Lane this season, individual mistakes that are costing points forAxminster. On a positive note Man-of-the-Match Webb had a pleasing debut and looks to be a good signing.

Tigers Team: Higgs, Hancock, Challis, Gage (80min Burrough), Seward, Galloway (70min McGuire),Wheatley, Highett (75min Tyler), Webb, Emmett, Barfoot.

Next Saturday Axminster Town are away to Galmpton Gents 3pm ko.

YOUTH FOOTBALL EXTRA
Seaton U10 A 3 Exmouth Ams 2

AFTER a break of nearly eight weeks due to the bad weather, Seaton A stepped up to face the predicted league champions Exmouth.

Luckily for Seaton they had built up a 2-0 lead within the first five minutes with Thomas Bush chipping home the second.

Exmouth pulled to level before the break but the crucial third Seaton goal came from Lewis Pearson.

Man of the match was Oliver Browne, but the whole team were superb. Line-up: Ricky Littley, Sam Sparkes, Lewis Franklin, Ben Franklin, Scott Pavey, Lewis Pearson, Callum Wood, Oliver Browne, Thomas Bush, Marni Youens-Stunnell, Ehron Keast, Will Campbell.

Next week the team are home to Seaton B 10.30KO.

LADIES HOCKEY

Honiton Hornets 1 Newton Abbott 4

FOLLOWING two encouraging weekend's of hockey, Honiton went into this game on a high, but knowing that it could be a particularly difficult game since the visitors are currently top of League Channel 2B - and so it proved.

The visitors opened the scoringafter 15 minutes. Five minutes later it was Honiton's turn to put pressure on the South-Devon side's goal and this pressure proved successful when Becky Bond, standing close to the Newton post, was able to connect neatly with the ball coming across the circle and sweep it to the backboard.

Unfortunately for the home side, just ahead of the half time whistle, once again the visitors were able to evade the Honiton defence and put themselves one goal up.

Continuing to play good competitive team hockey in the second-half Honiton had rather more of the game in the Newton half of the pitch; but although they did put pressure on the goalkeeper they couldn't break through and despite Sue Stone, the Hornets' goalie's gallant efforts – the visitors scored twice more.

Player of the Match: Geraldine Patch

Practices continue with ECVH at Cullompton Sports Centre on Tuesday evenings. Training takes place between 8:00pm - 9:30pm, with transport being arranged from Dowell Street Car Park at 7:30pm.

HAWKS FIGHTBACK FALLS JUST SHORT

ROUND-UP

JACK VENN CUP QUARTER-FINAL MILLWEY Rise, five time winners, continued their fine form in the Jack Venn cup with a good 2-1 over Norton Athletic. With Millwey's First Avenue Ground unplayable both teams agreed to switch the tie to Norton. This didn't deter Rise and two goals in the lead up to the break won the match. First Matt Hall broke the deadlock in the 40th minute then his uncle Ian bagged the second three minutes later. Norton pulled one back in the 70th minute when Neil Rusling's effort was deflected home by Matt Hall. Millwey manager Shane Featherstone had a mention for 16-year-old Alex Rockett who came off the bench for a useful 30-minute first team debut - just seven days after making his bow for the Reserves.

DIVISION THREE A first-half Simon Harding goal against his old team gave Fivehead United a superb 1-0 win in a game of few chances at table-topping Hawkchurch. DIVISION FOUR Ilminster A had goals from Luke Woodard (2), Carl Lazenby, Wayne Crocker and Josh House to thanks for a 5-4 win over battling Hawkchurch Reserves who fought back well with goals from Stuart Weir (2), Joe Carter and Jake Bearpark after trailing 5-0 on the hour mark. Indeed Hawks manager felt his team may even have snatched a point had the referee not cut the game short by six minutes. Top man for Hawkchurch was centre-back Louis Azor.

AXMINSTER CRICKET NEWS

NEWLY elected Captain Paul Miller will be looking for a good turnout of players when practice sessions restart at the Axe Valley Sports Hall on Friday, February 19th at 6pm.

All members will be notified and any prospective new members are welcome to attend. On Thursday, March 11th the club will be holding a special general meeting to formally accept a new constitution and complete some unfinished business from the last November's annual meeting.

The Ladies squad continue their pre-season nets at 5pm on Sunday's and would also welcome any new members. The new East Devon training sessions for girls under 15, held in Exeter during the winter months, have been attended by a dozen girls from Axminster so the club will be hoping they will moving into Ladies cricket in the next season or two.

From March 7th the under 11s will follow the Ladies on Sundays from 6.30pm. The under 15s and under 13s restart training on Tuesday March 2nd at 5.30pm.

The club has seen three more members obtain their UKCC Level 1 coaching awards during the last few months and there is already interest from other members who will be taking the course later in the year.

The season starts for the club on Sunday, 11th April with a match against Seaton whilst Friday, April 16th will be registration evening for all members.

The popular Colts Friday training sessions will commence from April 23rd until July 9th.

Club Patrons Day this year will be on June 20th when the club are hosting a Charity Day for the Lady Taverners. The organisation has been of assistance to the club on several occasions and all proceeds from the day will be shared between the two Charities, The Lady Taverners and CLSC.

The junior members of the club will be again battling it out in the Axminster Junior Premier League during the morning and after lunch the Ladies XI will play against a Devon Womens League XI.

Cloakham will also be host to two Devon County Ladies Matches and two Devon under-21 games as well as numerous other junior county matches.

Further information about the club can be obtained from Bob Wallis, Manager at Cloakham Lawn or Club Secretary Geoff Enticott (01297 32147).

HONITON WMC remained top of the league after a sensational 3-3 draw against Honiton Wonderers.

The result was even more significant with the Workies getting two bonus points meaning it was Wonderers first defeat in three years. All three matches were drawn but there were good frame wins for J. Cann and D. Wills. But the biggest surprise came when R. Selway secured two bonus points after B. Pike lost concentration and Selway cleared the colours. Wonderers still have two games in hand and should overhaul their rivals.

Colyton Feds went down 2-4 at home to Chard Casuals. The first two frames were drawn but R. Woolland got two bonus points for the Feds for taking a frame off P. Banfield. The next two frames were also drawn with R. Shave earning two bonus points for winning a frame for the Casuals against S. Orren. S. Banfield sealed the win for Casuals when he beat R. Gibbons.

The final game saw Chard B losing 2-4 at home to Colyton Excons. E. Bonetta won his game for the Excons against P. Gidley, the next two frames were drawn with M. Parker getting two bonus points after winning a frame against N. Wilmington. The final two frames were also drawn sealing the win for the Excons.

HONITON NETBALL

with Graham Ingram

WITH the weather once again playing tricks two games were cancelled – Bampton v NAS and Lyme Bay v Weather Girls whilst Flamingos A v 'Visions was abandoned.

The second division game between Sidmouth Toucans and Tip Top Trees Acorns reached the half way point and so the result stood in accordance with league rules.

Division One: Uplowman 34 Bo-Peeps 30, Keeley's Angels 47 Tip Top Trees Oaks 12.

THESE two first division games were played indoors at Colyton so survived the slippery outdoor weather experienced at Honiton.

Uplowman made the long journey to Colyton and were rewarded with the three points – but only after being given a scare by Bo-Peeps who were unlucky not to have done better from their efforts. The first quarter was close with Uplowman edging it 8-7, before Bo-Peeps moved 16-15 up at half way.

The third quarter belonged to the Peeps, with Sarah Beer tiger like at GK, and they were 26-21 ahead going into the final period. Mandy Norman and Uplowman had other ideas and came storming back to win by 34-30 and take the three points.

The single point that Bo-Peeps took was some consolation as it moved them a point closer to Tip Top Trees Oaks who lost heavily to unbeaten Keeley's Angels. This 47-12 win for the Angels moved them to within two points of Flamingos A, but with two games in hand – a possible six points.

Angels, with Denise Meyers in fine form led from the start and although Louise Garman worked hard at GD for the Oaks the Angels were just too strong.

Division Two: Sidmouth Toucans 8 Tip Top Trees Acorns 18.

THIS game had to be halted at half way due to poor playing conditions but the game had lasted long enough for the result to stand.

The 18-8 win for Tip Top Trees Acorns over Sidmouth Toucans moved them back to the top of the table, whilst the result probably finished off the Toucans chances of promotion.
